WE'VE GOT PEOPLE GOING FOR US.
People like Gwen Hendricks

There are banks with more people than Fidelity American. But, no bank has better people. And every single person who works at Fidelity is going all out to prove it. We're proving it by bending over backwards to help you when the chips are down, when help, not sympathy, is what you really need. We're proving it by providing the kind of banking service we'd want if we were you.

And we're proving it in the most basic way. By coming to you and asking for your business. We want only one thing: to be the best bank in Virginia. We're the only ones who can make it happen. Don't be surprised when it happens because, at Fidelity American Bank, we've got people going for us.

Miller - Govenor

Mr. Miller was elected to serve two terms as Attorney General of Virginia. In 1973 he was elected by the largest vote ever recorded by a candidate for State Office.

After graduating from Princeton in 1954, Andy served as an army lieutenant in Korea. After his tour of duty in the armed forces he entered the University of Virginia Law School and graduated at the top of his class. While Andy Miller served as Attorney General, he persuaded the legislature to create within his office a Division of Consumer Counsel. Since its inception in 1970, the Division has gone to Court for Virginians time after time to recover $1.4 million in taxpayers' and consumers' money from drug manufacturers. This is only one of the many accomplishments of the consumer counsel. In 1976 Andy Miller was voted "Outstanding Attorney General of the Year" by the National Association of Attorneys General.
